RE: 2 days Security Training, 29th and 30th January 2019

23rd, November 2018

Dear All,

John Paul II Justice and Peace Centre in partnership with AGEH - Civil Peace Service, would like to invite you for two days security training. This security training focuses specifically on enabling personnel to carry out their work in unfamiliar or potentially adverse environments.

The training will be facilitated by two trainers from the Sanctuary Consulting Africa, www.sanctuaryconsulting.ie an Irish Company that specializes on security trainings. The course is designed for medium to high threat environments and will be focusing on:

- Security Foundations
- Threat Recognition and Awareness
- Crime Prevention and the Attack Cycle
- Active Shooter/Aggressor Survival
- Hostile Observation Awareness
- Vehicle Operations/Carjacking Mitigation and Survival
- Government and Non-Government Vehicle Checkpoints
- Interviews and Interrogations
- Skills Application

The trainers:

Brian Finnegan, DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS AND TRAINING

Finn has over 30 years' experience in the security field serving in the British forces for ten years in conflict areas such as the Middle East and Northern Ireland.

Johnny Smith, CEO AND CO-FOUNDER

Johnny began his personal protection career over 29 years ago in U.S. Special Operations, conducting undercover investigative assignments and operations through and beyond Desert Storm and around the globe. Since that time, he has ceaselessly pursued skills and expertise which have enabled him to safely navigate his government, military, and civilian clients through some of the most dangerous locations in the world.

The training will take place at John Paul II Justice and Peace Centre in Nsambya, Nsereko Road, Kampala.

Date: 29th and 30th January 2019

Time: 9am – 5pm

Venue: John Paul II Justice and Peace Centre in Nsambya, Nsereko Road

Costs: 780.000 UGX (including lunch and two break teas)

Participation fee must be paid via money transfer until 31. December 2018 to secure a place.
