"If you want peace work for Justice"
John Paul II

We Are:

- A Consortium for Justice and Peace, founded by five Religious Families: Jesuits, Mill Hill, Holy Cross, Comboni & Missionaries of Africa.
- We are at the service of the Catholic Church and all the People of God in Uganda.

Vision:

To empower the People of God to participate more effectively in the full proclamation of the Gospel.

Mission Statement

We aim to promote, inspired by our Christian Faith, a critical understanding of social issues and a creative response to build a more just society, with special concern for the poor.

Our Mission is to foster just and compassionate relations and integral human development through formation in the Catholic Social Teaching and Gospel values.

Inspiration:

"The Church as the Family of God in Uganda must be witness to Christ by a firm commitment to justice and solidarity by each member of God's people".
(E. in Africa, 105, J.P.II)

Our Objectives

- Research on the challenges of JP, in the life of Ugandans, to achieve social and economic Justice.
- Information of what is being done for JP in the Country and the world.
- Documentation on relevant issues of JP: books, magazines, articles, JP News letters, internet websites, research done by the Centre and other JP Centres and Universities.
- Training through sessions-publications and Media programmes on the Catholic Social Teaching and on Justice and Peace issues, to empower the citizens and build greater solidarity.
- To engage in Advocacy and Networking to monitor and influence the building of a more just and peaceful society by meeting the people's basic needs.
- To collaborate with our national leaders: economic, political, social, cultural and religious, plus all the diplomatic and donors representatives, in building up a more just, free and equitable society.
- To support those who are committed to address emergency situations.

Activities:

- We are committed to make the Catholic Social Teaching known and integrated in all our relations and commitments.
- We are eager to network with all our lay brothers and sisters and with all other believers and JP groups to build the Lords Kingdom of Justice, Compassion and Peace
- The Consultative Forum composed mainly of Lay Catholic professionals is vital to implement the objectives of the Centre.
- We are aware of Justice, Reconciliation and Peace being an integral part of Evangelization. (Synod for Africa)
- We want to collaborate with Priests, Congregations and groups working for justice and Peace.

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me for, he has anointed me to bring Good News to the afflicted....." LK 4, 18.
